GRAIN TRADE
IN DOMINION
AT STANDSTILL

Uncertainty of Functioning of Co-operative Board Given as Cause.

Winnipeg, August 10.—"The grain trade in Canada appears to be at a standstill at the present time. Wheat prices are falling almost daily and trade volume in the new crop is practically nil. The situation is a special article dealing with the uncertainty of the functioning of the wheat board, and should the board be finally abandoned for this year, it undoubtedly means that prices will sink still lower and the weight of heavy receipts, all of which will have to find a market. The newspaper continues:

"At this time in other years, it is conservatively estimated that fully 15 percent of the new crop would have already been sold for future delivery, which would mean that upwards of 50,000,000 bushels of this year's crop would already have been disposed of to the ultimate consumer, and this to very large extent relieved the pressure of the heavy deliveries from the farmers into the trade channels. On the Winnipeg grain market, there are about 25 large exporting firms, and an enquiry from the majority of these reveals the fact that this year they have sold practically nothing. They state their hands are tied, that they cannot advance new business contracts not knowing whether they will be able to fulfil their obligations to the board, should finally be re-established.

LEAVING CANADA ALONE

"On the other hand, and which perhaps will be more serious as to its effect on the Canadian producer, is the fact that the European importer, to whom we must sell 80 percent of our wheat crop, is leaving the Canadian market alone, and is buying for his future requirements in the United States, Argentina, Australia or anywhere he feels that his contracts will be respected and deliveries made. This means that whether the grain will be a wheat board or not, the demand for Canadian wheat is not going to be very bright for the next few months.

"On July 3, October wheat was selling at 107 1/2¢ on August 10, it closed at 107 1/2¢, a decline in about five weeks of over 14 cents. With two or three more such declines, the closing price has been lower than the previous day, and the general trend of opinion is that the price will still lower, and dollar wheat, basis Fort William, is now predicted.

"While the various parties concerned are arguing about the wheat board, the Americans are unloading their surplus of wheat on the European and British markets, and as the present outlook is for a plentiful supply of wheat for grain and stock requirements, every day of the present certainly makes it just that much more doubtful if the Canadian farmer will be able to find a ready market for his wheat or in fact any market that will pay him a reasonable price for the export of produce of this year. "There is a saying in law that 'time is the essence of any agreement', and that saying was never more true than in the present case. If the wheat board cannot be announced to function immediately, then let there be no charge of this matter announced; the board is off for this year, and at least five Canada a chance to sell their wheat crop."

FERGUSON'S POSITION
CLEARLY STATED

Hon. G. H. Ferguson, Ontario Conservative leader, returned to the west last from a trip through the western provinces and on to Alaska. He was greatly grieved by the prospect for good crops and the general revival of business west of Winnipeg. In an interview with the press he dealt with the reports given out by his enemies during his absence, and has been the constant subject of political opponents to create the opinion that Mr. Ferguson and the Conservative party were ready to destroy the Ontario Temperance Act. Mr. Ferguson put his position fairly before the people in a statement given to the press. To the Telegram reporter he said:

"Neither in the west nor in the east nor anywhere have I spoken against the O.T.A. The people have expressed the sentiment for which they stand, and we are prepared to stand by that sentiment and give it effect in legislation. But I have criticized the method of enforcing the law. There is certainly room for improvement in that."

To the Mail and Empire he said: "The benefit of the wisest legislation and judicious administration of law is to recognize that a great deal of the dissatisfaction with the present administration in Ontario is due to the method of the law. The present administration in the enforcement of the law, they have endeavored, by a system of penalties and punishment through fines, and I am satisfied it will not be difficult to suggest improvement that will appeal to every self-respecting citizen who prefers to be governed by methods that have the goodwill and sympathy of the vast majority of the best thinking people of the province, rather than to feel that their laws are being enforced by unfeeling men by bay whistkey, nor paying public money to women of questionable character to secure evidence of breaches of the law."

RIMBEY URGES EXTENSION OF RAILWAY

Freight Rate on Line from Lacombe Also Declared to be Exorbitant

A delegation representing the Rimby board of trade, consisting of J. E. Balfour, Chas. Rolston and Harold Elhart, are in the city for the purpose of interceding with the government in connection with the Lacombe and northwest railway branch. Extension of the line from Rimby to Edmonton is one of the matters which they are pressing as well as a reduction in freight rates which at the present time are excessive, according to reports.

The freight rate from Lacombe to Rimby, a distance of thirty miles is much more than for any corresponding distance on the main line, according to the delegation, and they believe that there is no just reason for this discrimination. For instance the carrying charges on a box of cherries from the fruit growing districts in British Columbia to Lacombe is 65¢, and the charge from Lacombe to Rimby is 65¢.

Rimby is one of the oldest settled districts in the province, and the delegation believes that immediate steps should be taken on the part of the government to relieve the existing condition.

GREAT TRACT OF
NORTHERN TIMBER
IN FIRE DANGER

Forestry Officials Consider Conflagrations in B.C. National Disaster

"That a great tract of lumber land in Northern Alberta is in grave danger of being burned, in addition to the considerable areas swept by fire in the last few days, is the opinion of C. H. Morse, Inspector of forest reserves for Alberta, who returned to Calgary from a tour of inspection in the north. Mr. Morse went north with the intention of visiting the scene of the fires to convey reports to the Hon. J. A. Palmer, but business with the minister of the interior prevented him doing so.

The latest reports from the scene of the various fires in Northern Alberta show that a conflagration is in progress at Blueberry mountain, 25 to 30 miles northwest of Spirit River. Another fire is going along the railway grade about 25 miles west of Spirit River. There are three fires on the line between Spirit River and Grande Prairie, at mile 65, mile 17, and mile 22. Then there is a fire north of Grande Prairie, a settlement north of Edmonton Lake. Of these fires, the forest officials have definite information. Most of them have been burning for about ten days, and are being fought as the assistance available along the nature of the country will permit.

RUMORS OF FIRES

They have heard rumors of fires in the Sturgeon Lake district, also across the Wapiti from Grande Prairie. Some places these fires are so isolated that it takes days to get the rumors reports. "The department officials believe most of them are rumors, but they are not sure of the province.

The worst situation is in the Grande Prairie, where it is extremely dry. The grass in the open country is like tinder, and the woods have been thoroughly dried out by the tremendous heat and a complete absence of rain. These are the only fires reported anywhere in the province.

EMBARRASSING

Speaking of embarrassing moments, the worst we have heard of came the other day to a Chicago newspaper woman who lectured in Evanston. She made a great hit, and the ladies came flocking up afterwards.

"I can't tell you, Miss X," said one sentimental old lady, "how much we enjoy your lecture. My aunt was sick we read them to her every day."

Miss X cast about desperately for something modest to say. "It must have nearly killed her," she said at last.

"My aunt died," said the old lady, in a hushed voice.

LOYD GEORGE'S VIEWS
ON REMOVAL OF CATTLE
EMBARGO

Ottawa: How Honorable Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture in the British Government, almost closed the door to the removal of the cattle embargo is for the first time disclosed by the publication of Premier Lloyd George's statement before the Imperial Conference of 1921.

In the spring of 1921, the Dominion Government had reason for believing that the embargo was about to be removed. The question had been the subject of negotiations between Ottawa and London; and the indications were that the British Government was about to carry out its pledge given at the Imperial Conference of 1917. Just then, however, it was announced that Mr. Manning Doherty, Ontario Minister of Agriculture, had arrived in England and launched an attack on the embargo. Mr. Doherty, associating himself with a British newspaper that was urging the lifting of the embargo, carried the fight into British domestic affairs. With the new paper in question he made the embargo an issue in a British by-election then being fought, and as a consequence Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen, British Minister of Agriculture, seeking re-election, was defeated.

Shortly afterwards at the Imperial Conference, Mr. McElwain, then Canadian Premier, brought up the question of the embargo. Mr. Griffith-Boscawen, appointed to look into the subject. Mr. McElwain, in his remarks to the conference, presented his case in a moderate way. He made it plain that Canada had no right, nor desire, to force a British domestic policy on the British Empire. He recalled the pledge given Sir Robert Borden and Mr. Rogers by Mr. Frederick (now Lord Strathclyde) the British Minister of Agriculture, that the embargo would be lifted "as soon as possible." Mr. McElwain held that the words "as soon as possible" applied to ships (Mr. Boscawen had said that the only reason against lifting the embargo was a lack of tonnage) and he asked for a resolution declaring in favor of the lifting of the embargo at once.

Mr. Lloyd George stated that the pledge given to Sir Robert Borden in 1919 was "clear and unequivocal" and he did not consider a resolution under the circumstances was requisite. He pointed out that at the whole issue of cattle embargo was being considered by a Royal Commission that would report in a few months.

Mr. Lloyd George, however, called attention to Mr. Manning Doherty's disastrous participation as follows: "Mr. Lloyd George," Mr. McElwain will forgive me for saying that, although he has opened the case with great fairness and in a way which could not in the least offend the susceptibilities of anybody in this Kingdom, all his advocates have not been equally careful, and the case has been largely prejudiced by the manner in which it has been raised. I am sorry to say that a Canadian Minister took it in his agitation to make a question which is purely a domestic question."

Mr. Balfour said: "He was a provincial Minister."

Mr. Lloyd George: "Yes, but he was a man in an agitation and in a bad mood. It was a very dangerous proceeding." If followed, it would mean a British Minister would be on the platform in Canada or Australia, New Zealand or South Africa, to take part in a discussion on, say, a question of tariff which affected the goods of the United Kingdom. There is no Minister here who would ever dream of doing so. I am perfectly certain that if he had done so, his conduct would have met with the severest form of disapproval. Mr. McElwain will forgive me for calling his attention to that. I could hardly believe it when I saw the name, and I thought there must be some mistake. But he may depend upon it that there is a strong desire here to encourage products from the Empire, and that everything will be done to facilitate their importation into this country. We shall bear in that mind, and it will have a considerable weight with us when we come to give final judgment upon the findings of this Commission. He would not expect me, who there is a Commission sitting to investigate the matter, to go beyond that at the present moment."

HEALTH OF DAIRY CATTLE

How it Can Be Obtained and Also Maintained.

If dairymen, in particular, and farmers generally, would know how to have healthy cattle, they should look no time in sending to the Publications Branch of Ottawa for a copy of recently issued Pamphlet No. 16 of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, providing the means of supervision of the Veterinary Director.

It contains 85 definite questions and 85 brief answers, accompanied by a plain, straightforward language, giving the Accredited Herd system and the identification, prevention and eradication of tuberculosis; also refers to the requirements of and of the primary principle for the prevention of tuberculosis, or, for the health of the dairy cattle, live stock, is cleanliness, accompanied by free ventilation and plenty of light; cleanliness in the element in sanitation is the first and most important consideration is indicated by the statement that the officially appointed inspector will not undertake to test a herd for tuberculosis until he is assured by personal observation that the premises are clean and sanitary.

Besides details of the provisions of the act, the pamphlet contains a number of questions and answers from a variety of sources, including municipal testing of cattle, the identification of cattle by private practitioners with the use of the official stamp, and the ways in which avian and dairy poultry are liable to become infected with tuberculosis.

FOUR BOYS BURNT

In the Destruction of a Barn West of Leduc

(Leduc Representative)

A tragedy, the worst in the history of Leduc district, occurred at Glidhurst on Tuesday night, when four young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Smith were burned to death while sleeping in the hay loft over a horse stable. Their five sons were sleeping in the loft, at the time, Mike, aged twelve, being the only one to escape. The unfortunate victims of the tragedy were John, aged fifteen, Stanley, aged fourteen, Andrew, aged ten, and Peter, eight years old.

Just what caused the fire will never be known. Constable Rawson and Coroner Woods were called to the scene and while unable to determine how the fire originated, it was decided that an inquiry was unnecessary. Nothing was to be learned from the charred remains burned beyond recognition. Mike, the one lad to escape, made no attempt to get out of the burning building and run to the house to summon his father. By the time he could get to the barn, however, the vision for him had been lost. Five horses were destroyed along with five loads of hay in the loft. The hay just been put in the loft the afternoon before, and it is possible the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion. It is in element of destruction, and the explanation is that the barn was struck by lightning. The father states emphatically that none of the boys smoked, and he does not smoke himself. It has been the custom to put the horses in the stable at night, but they were brought in Wednesday evening to be ready for the family to attend mass the next morning. Mr. and Mrs. Smith had a family of five sons and five daughters, and their only surviving son is the lad who escaped from the loft. That they have been driven almost to the point of distraction by the awful affair is not to be wondered at. The remains were interred on Thursday morning, service being held at the Polish Roman Catholic church at Glidhurst.

BENALTO

Crop conditions during the past week have been most favorable, and the first of next week will see wheat and barley cutting in general. The sample of grain appears to be very good, being very well filled and ripening very evenly.

Messrs. Jenkins and Nelson shipped three cars of cattle from Benalto on Tuesday.

The Benalto Ladies' Club held their regular meeting in the hall on Wednesday. Considerable important business was presented for consideration.

The Ladies' Club, with Mrs. A. Kinn, president; Mrs. F. G. Jenkins, vice-president; and Mrs. V. B. Buchanan, secretary, and a splendid lot of members, have certainly worked hard in the interests of the community since their organization a year ago, and particularly have they assisted their organization, the Benalto Booster Club, in providing ball accommodation and entertainment for the district. At the present time they are arranging for a dance on August 18.

Mr. O. W. Nelson is making preparations for considerable building, including granaries and large hog houses, 70x100 feet, to accommodate his ever increasing stock of Duroc-Jerseys.

Mr. A. Norton and family, C.R.R. agent here, are holidaying in Benalto. Mr. Knox is relieving agent during his absence.

Dr. Allison Smith, of Medicine Hat, has been in Benalto the last week and certainly was kept very busy, and his patients only regret was the shortness of his stay, as many of his friends contemplated having work attended to which will have to wait till his return in October.

Mr. Chamberlain, our popular well-dresser, is putting down a well for Mr. J. F. Nelson of his farm south of Benalto.

Miss Laycock, of Ponoka, is a visitor in the district, calling on old friends.

Mr. J. Chapman is in charge of the Norton ranch, and reports the stock doing very well.

GOLF

On Wednesday afternoon the local golfers were hosts to the Innisfail club who sent up a team of eight for a friendly game.

The local men were able this time to take the measure of the visitors, and some first class golf was produced in some of the matches.

The scores: Innisfail—Red Deer—0; Wm. R. E. 14; Babcock—0; Wm. Silverberg, 12; McCowan—0; Wright, W. H., 14; Laird—0; Humber, R. H., 14; Hodge, Wm.—0; Smith, D. A., 14; Davidson, R.—0; McKelvey, J. R., 0; McKelvey—0; Stephenson, A. T., 0; Cameron—0; Ford, W. R., 0; Wagner, Dr.—0; Malcolm, R., 0; Grant, A.—14.

After the match, Mr. and Mrs. Rawlinson served a dainty lunch on the veranda of the club house, which was much enjoyed.

The Red Deer ladies entertained the visiting ladies during the afternoon. Innisfail will be strongly represented at the big Red Deer tournament on August 22 and 23.

M.D. GOLDEN WEST

The fifth regular meeting of the M.D. of Golden West, No. 371, was held in the Municipality at Sylvan Lake on July 24, the object being to consider the Reeves Rogers presiding, Col. Strickland, Johnson, Smith and Braithwaite in attendance.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Department of Municipal Affairs advised under date July 25 that, under the Tax Recovery Act, 1922, it will not be necessary to include in the annual report to registrars, the amounts of costs for which a caveat is being filed against the lands.

The Field Crop Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, advised under date of July 21 that J. B. Jackson of Svartha had complained about weeds on land adjoining here, and asked that action be taken to remove them.

The Act. Councillor Johnson understood to attend to the matter.

The appeal against Wm. Land tax assessment for 1922 was accompanied by statutory declaration regarding improvement and letters from A. L. Forrester and Jas. Logan, confirming statements regarding cultivation on July 25-26-27-28-29.

Moved by Rogers that, in consideration of the necessary breaking and clearing on the land, the same be withdrawn from Wm. Land tax assessment for 1922.

Letters from B. W. Lewis, copy of letter from the Soldiers Settlement Board, dated June 15, 1922, in the tax on N.E. 2-37-1-5. It was stated by the Board that this land was Crown land that year and not liable for assessment.

Moved by Stringer that taxes levied in 1921 on N.E. 25-37-1-5 be cancelled. Carried.

Cattle

Receipts of cattle on the yard this week were the heaviest since last November, although a large proportion was stuff killed through country points in the north to the south country. Trading was about on a par with the previous week, with the possible exception of veal calves, which sold a trifle weaker. Three exceptionally choice steers received on the yard sold for $5, but the majority of the choice killing steers sold from $4 to $4.50. Medium to good killing steers made $3.50 to $4, while average making; this class sold as feeders at $2.50 to $3.25. Pair killing cows and heifers sold for $2.25 to $2.75, while common cows carrying a little milk sold for $1.50 to $2.25. Bulls held steady at $1.50 to $1.75 for choice butchers and $1 to $1.50 for holsteins. Choice veal calves made $3.50 to $4, but the smaller proportion of the receipts is composed of thin and rough spotted calves which sell all the way from $1.50 to $3. Canners and cutters met a ready demand at $6 to $1.50. Stocker and feeder cattle again sold readily at steady prices; choice feeder steers, $2.50 to $3.25; stocker steers $2 to $2.75; stock heifers, $1.75 to $2.25 and stock cows $1.50 to $2. Off colored or poor quality stuff is not wanted and only sell as canners.

Top price on cattle a year ago, $3.50.

Hogs

Receipts fair, with large percentage of roughs and sows. Wednesday's sales were made on a basis of $11 to $12.25, while on Thursday and Friday the market developed a weaker tone and everything cleaned up at $11. ## CITIZEN'S LETTER

The Advocate last week worked itself up into an awful heat over the letter of "Citizen" in The News. The Advocate has the habit of doing that.

Any person who signs a letter with a non-descript name, in that paper's opinion, a coward, a snigger and, without, "should have the condemnation of every honest citizen."

But the editor of The Advocate makes a bold insinuation that people may think the editor of The News wrote the letter in question, and, if he did, then he is a most horrible example of everything that is bad. All this is very serious and hard to follow in dog days.

It is a common thing for The Advocate to publish letters under a non-descript name, and several were published during the last election.

The News has nothing against the Aldermen in question, in fact they are the editor's friends as far as he knows; but the Advocate places them in a poor light when it hurls on the point of not being a mere echo of the administration. This point has been carried so far by the Advocate that every move they (the Aldermen) make should be against the administration, in that paper's opinion, or they are not doing their duty.

The Advocate still thinks we should have had a higher mill rate. We think the mill rate was too high, and that it will have to go down or Red Deer will never go ahead.

Suppose the Council resign as a body, make a test case of it, and let the citizens have just a little say in the matter?

SAFETY FIRST

"Safety first" is a good maxim in most things, but particularly so in relation to the investment of money. The rich may afford to speculate and to take the risks attendant on high rates of interest. Those whose means are moderate must be careful to see that there is absolute security in their investments. For such people there is no other form of investment which takes such a high rank, combining absolute security with liberal interest, as the bonds of the Dominion of Canada. Holders of Dominion bonds bearing five and a half per cent., maturing December 1, 1923, can re-invest their money at the same rate of interest by exchanging the old bonds for new ones running for either five years or ten years, as the bondholders may prefer. Arrangements for carrying out this exchange can be made through all the chartered banks.

"GOD GIVE US MEN."

The common people have gone back to work. Under great difficulties they are beginning to till and make and trade carry. It is very hard for them because the rules of the leaders are hindrances. "You must not trade with these; you must not buy of those; you must carry under such and such conditions," says leadership. But even with the burdens of unwieldy rules and the restrictions of many rules and regulations, the workers are bringing back prosperity. There is a vast stamina in the good old world, but it sorely needs wise leadership.

A new edition of the Northern Alberta Land Map, just issued by the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch of the Department of the Interior, shows the location of all Dominion lands available for sale. A new feature added to the current issue gives similar information regarding those quarter sections of privately-owned unoccupied and uncultivated lands that are for sale.

With the two classes of information now available in map form, the prospective settler will have a guide to opportunities for either homesteading or purchasing. If favourable to the latter plan of settlement, lists containing names and addresses of owners of unoccupied farms in any particular district throughout the province may be obtained in addition to the map, upon application to the Department. These lists contain information regarding the price at which the owner would be willing to sell or lease his land, terms of payment that would prove acceptable, acreage suitable for cultivation, nature of soil, value of buildings and distance from a railway.

A FREE PRIZE STATE

DETROIT Free Press

Those sons and daughters of Erin who may still cherish an honest, lingering doubt concerning the reality of the freedom enjoyed by the Free State, so far as Great Britain is concerned, have before them a proof of the substantial independence with regard to home affairs which is afforded if not particularly pleasant. The country is, on the whole, a free state, and a very pretty little civil war, with street fighting and the destruction of property, and all the archaisms as features, and all without suffering the least interference from the outside world. Could economy go further than this? We do not see how. Ireland is surely a free state, free to build itself up and become strong, prosperous, peaceful and happy, or free to ruin and destroy itself with squabbles, factionalism and guerrilla warfare. Clearly it has been left up to the Irish people to show what they have in them. Their own fate has been left in their own hands.

The Mayor presented and addressed the Council with a view to having Holt Avenue opened south to connect with Victoria Ave. He spoke of the damage to his business at the Windsor Garage owing to the closing of the old thoroughfare and reminded the Council of the promise to open a roadway through as soon as possible. He did not ask to have the avenue go direct south, but over to Kingsmill Avenue and south to connect with Victoria Avenue, close to the C.P.R. track, through the old brick yard. He did not think the work would cost more than eleven or twelve hundred dollars.

Ald. Smith recognized the claims of Mr. Howlett, but doubted if we could raise sufficient funds to do this work at the present time.

Acting Mayor Broughton claimed that this work would be done as soon as possible, but he thought it would be better to have the avenue go direct south, but over to Kingsmill Avenue and south to connect with Victoria Avenue, close to the C.P.R. track, through the old brick yard. He did not think the work would cost more than eleven or twelve hundred dollars.

Mr. Howlett agreed to lay the matter on the table for the present, until the other members of the Council were in attendance.

Ald. Smith gave a very comprehensive report on the work being done at the Memorial Hospital, stating that the report of the Hospital for the first six months was very gratifying and this was due largely, he claimed, to the matron and her excellent staff of nurses, assisted by the Hospital Ladies Aid and friends.

Ald. Smith presented the following comparison of revenue and expenditure for first six months of 1921 and first six months of 1922, as follows:

NEW DOMINION RECORDS MADE AT BIG ATHLETIC MEET

Coaches of Winnipeg, Creates New Canadian Record for 100 Yards by Running It in 9.55. Equaling World's Record; Sheppard, Edmonton, Sets New Jump Record of 5 Feet 11 inch in Standing High Jump.

CAMERON, OF VANCOUVER, IS ALL-ROUND CHAMPION

New Canadian track history was made at the national field and track championships held at Vancouver, B.C., on Saturday, when Cyril Cameron, carrying the colors of the New Red Athletic Club, Winnipeg, sprang the 100 yards in 9.55 and 3.5 seconds, creating a new Canadian record and equalling the world record for this distance, now held by Charles Padcock, of California. The former record was 9.5 and 3.5 seconds, made by Robert Kerr, of Hamilton, Ont., in 1908, and F. L. Lukeman, of Montreal, in 1909.

All existing Canadian records for the standing high jump were smashed when R. S. Sheppard, of Edmonton, Alta., vaulted 5 feet 11 inch, breaking his own Dominion record of 5 feet and 5 1/2 of an inch, made at Edmonton in 1921.

The record-breaking fleas made by Coates and Sheppard featured the championship meet, which was attended by more than 3,500 persons. A heavy rain threatened for a time to interfere with the program of athletic events, but the weather finally cleared, although several of the track events were run off with a heavy rain, slowing up the athletes to some extent.

CAMERON IS CHAMPION. John Cameron, of Vancouver, was crowned the all round champion of the meet, with a total of 11 points. He was first place in the 100 yds. high events and second place in the 100 yds. dash.

Manitoba was the most successful province, her representatives making 25 points; Alberta was second with 23; British Columbia, 21; New Brunswick, 15; Saskatchewan, 4; U.S.A., 3; and Thunder Bay, 1.

John Cameron, of Vancouver, won the championship of Western Canada for highland dancing for the second successive year, while Pipe Major Hugh McNeil, of the 10th battalion Calgary Highlanders, won the piping championship of Western Canada.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Calgary Canadian Games Society.

SPLENDID ATHLETES. The flower of Canada's athletes gathered to compete in the national championship events, and many Canadians saw for the first time top notch athletes in action. While Alberta managed to come second in the standing of the provinces, the credit for this astounding mark goes to the capital city, for only one event was won by a Calgary athlete, the one mile, won by George A. Rounce, of the provincial title holder.

athletes secured first in the standing high jump, in the running broad jump, standing broad jump, and hop, step and jump and hurdles.

No. 2 PACK WOLF CUBS' TRIP TO SYLVAN LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Graham were the hosts on Wednesday to those of the 2nd Wolf Cub Pack who had not had a holiday at the Lake. The boys, to the number of nine, under the Cubmaster, Major Lister, were taken out by Mr. Graham and Mr. Berry, in cars. Immediately after arrival at Mr. Graham's cottage, bathing suits were donned and the boys were taken to Sylvan Lake for the night about. Two moose heads from drowning were carried out to the shore, and the boys were told of an accident. Page Greig and Major Lister were the rescuers, and the boys were seen on the spot to render aid when cries for help were heard, some of the boys not knowing it was make believe.

As around the Lake in Mr. Graham's boat was the next item, and the boys found it a novel and exciting experience, and vowed it was the best thing of the day (next to the huge dish of ice cream which each boy later received). Mr. Berry was the sailing master, and his diminutive crew hauled up the jib and mainsail with a 30-lb. snave-boat, and a smart breeze took them along at a fast clip. Supper was served soon after the party returned from their sail, and all kinds of good things were served until, without words, each boy indicated in various ways that he was hungry. Mr. Berry arrived to find the boys home and all reluctantly bade goodbye to their host and hostess and piled into their cars. The boys were given as they moved away to show their appreciation of the good time they had had. The party arrived home about 9:30, tired out but happy.

FATAL HONORS. A woman visiting one of the beaches this summer missed a young guard who had been there for years and who had won many medals for life-saving. She asked an old sailor what had become of him.

"Well, miss," he replied, "one day when off duty poor Bill fell into the water and the weight of his medals carried him down."

DIAGNOSIS. A man was fixing his automobile. "Trouble?" asked a pedestrian. "Some," was the laconic reply. "What power car?" "Forty horses."

"What seems to be the matter with it?" "Well, from the way she acts I should say that 39 of the horses were dead as Flax King."

Council of the Municipal District of Pine Lake met in the Secretary's office on Monday afternoon, Reeve Fiske presiding.

There was very little business to be transacted, but there was a general discussion on the affairs of the municipality.

Application will be made to H. Milton Martin for his next order under the Subdivision and Other Properties Act in closing out certain subdivisions in the District.

The editor of the Advocate asked Council to instruct the Secretary to mail him a notice of the Council meetings. It was decided to insert a notice in each of the local papers for the information of the ratepayers and others concerned.

The accounts were passed.

RED DEER FAIR HAS A SURPLUS

The Directors of the Agricultural Society met in the Secretary's office on Saturday evening to receive the interim report of the Secretary on the financial results of the 1922 Fair.

It was evident that, while the returns were not complete, there will be a surplus of nearly $500.00 after paying all expenses, including interest on loans and Secretary's salary up to August 31.

This is regarded as fairly satisfactory in view of general conditions, although the surplus is not nearly sufficient to cover the deficit from 1921. Financial arrangements are being made for paying all outstanding liabilities on this year's operations.
